TO THE TRADE

We seek the business of all seed dealers and florists who believe in buying where their dollars go farthest.

Our seeds are absolutely reliable—the very best that it is possible to grow. We know this to be so because all the seeds we sell are grown on our own seed farms under perfect climatic conditions.

Our prices are from 50 to 75% lower than those of any other house in the United States selling seeds of the same reliability. One reason for this is because we save our customers the middleman's profit—a big item. Another is because we chop every avoidable expense in the planting, harvesting and marketing of our seeds. And a third is because we are satisfied with very small profits.

Any seedsman who is not too busy to save money can quickly convince himself of the proof of these statements by comparing the prices we quote on the following pages with those asked by other wholesale houses.
